OUR SUMMER OUTINGS

SOME SUGGESTIONS AS TO THE MANNER OF MAKING THEM
RESTFUL AND HELPFUL.

Viewing our summer outings from an impartial standpoint, we wonder how many are discussed in a sensible manner, and how many study the subject as it should be studied ere deciding upon the proper way of spending one's vacation. One's health and manner of living should have much to do in deciding what a person should do for a change.

Think of delicate, tired or overworked persons spending their coveted two weeks at Atlantic City! There is a change, of course, and excitement will keep them going, all ignorant of the havoc being wrought in their system; but when they return, or very shortly afterward they begin to realize that their body and nerves have not rested, and they are probably in a worse condition than when they left home. There are some people whom, there is no doubt, such resorts exactly suit; but outings at these places do not always benefit, and to many people they are positively detrimental.

On the other hand, there are people whom the quietude of Mountain Lake Park, Webster Springs and all such small places bore to the limit. The water, too, in a few cases, has seemed almost poisonous at these sulphur springs. This is the exception, however, and if one can put up with being slightly bored at times and get interested in some one besides themselves, they can gain at small resorts the rest for body and brain and nerves that is so much needed, and return home in fit condition for a wrestle with fate.

St. Louis is the Mecca for the greater number of our travelers this season, and each and every person who can make the necessary arrangements feels it his duty to go to the place where he can learn the most and see the most for his money. This is all well and good, but knowledge can be purchased too dearly sometimes, and unless you have abundant time in which to rest yourself afterward, consider well before you go. It is a magnificent exposition and well worth effort to see; but don't overestimate your strength.

I have some good lots in two squares of Court-house for sale at $375.00. H.

SPECIAL MEETING

OF CITY COUNCIL AT NOON TO-DAY GAVE PERMISSION TO CARNIVAL COMPANY FOR STREET FAIR.

A special session of the City Council was held at 12 o'clock to-day to decide on granting a permit to the Eagles for the street carnival. Mayor Kinsey, City Clerk Engle and eight of the Councilmen—Lilly, DeBolt, Davis, Hutchinson, Downs, Harr, Howard and Robinson—were in their respective places.

Clerk Engle stated that the meeting was called for the purpose of granting or not granting the permit for the carnival. The matter was considered.
One of the Councilmen stated that if permit had been granted the Woodmen to have a carnival, the Eagles had the right to the same. A motion was placed before the Council that the permit be granted, which was seconded and a vote cast. The result was that the Carnival Company got permission to bring its shows to the city and exhibit them upon the streets.

It was decided that no tents were to be placed on Fairmont avenue, Main or Jackson streets, where the car lines are; also that the Mayor or any Councilman who may note an obscene or vulgar thing may have the show removed at once, and that the city is to be left in as clean a condition as that in which it is found. The street committee will decide what streets the show will be exhibited on. The carnival will show here six days, from the 22d to the 27th, inclusive.

No Game Yesterday.

The game scheduled at Piedmont yesterday was postponed on account of wet grounds. The team returns tonight, accompanied by the Piedmont nine, to play Sunday and Monday at Traction Park. The chances are that the game at Piedmont to-day will be called off for the same reason as yesterday's, but local fans hope this may not be the case, as they have hopes that the locals will whip the Highlanders, making the trip a decided success, as they have now broken even, winning one from Cumberland and one from Frostburg, and losing two at the former city, and that with the pitching corps short. Tuesday Morgantown plays here, and Wednesday the locals and the Y. M. C. A. clash.

Miss Lucille Morgan will leave tomorrow for a month's visit to her brother, Mr. G. W. Morgan, who resides at Highland, Monongalia county.

DAVIS CALLED OFF

DEMOCRATIC LEADERS DISTRESS-ED OVER FAILURE OF THE MEMORY OF THE CANDI-DATE FOR VICE PRES-DENT.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 20.—The managers of the Democratic campaign will not put Henry Gassaway Davis on the stump this year.

Visitors returning from the notification ceremonies at White Sulphur Springs agree in the statement that the exhibition given by the ex-Senator in making his address in response to the notification was pathetic and discouraging in the extreme to the Democratic leaders who witnessed it.

Mr. Davis departed from his written speech, his memory failed him, and he gave such proofs of the effects of age as to astonish those who had heard of his vigor.

In attempting to quote from Judge Parker's telegram he was unable to recall the words correctly. Those who had criticized Mr. Root's observations on the age of the candidate had nothing to say after the address.

JUNKINS' BAND

Will Furnish Music for Two Important Occasions.

Junkins' Band has been engaged for Labor Day at Clarksburg, Monday, Sept. 5. The march program for that day will be entirely new and arranged especially for the occasion. The band will leave Fairmont at 7.10 a. m. and return on No. 55 the same day via Grafton. This popular organization has also been engaged for the excursion on the steamer Mason Sunday, Aug. 21. Fairmont to Masontown and return, boat leaving Fairmont at 8 a. m.

A series of rehearsals will be given during the day and will be conducted in the same manner as in the band room. One interesting feature will be new music played for the first time, illustrating the fact that bands have troubles of their own.

Intermediate Court.

Amos O. Stanley has entered suit in chancery against Henry J. Reid et al. Attorney Stanley represents the plaintiff.

Abraham M. Hess has been appointed a committee of one to take charge of the person and estate of William P. Fortney. Bond, $2,500.

Forman's Photo Gallery will be closed for vacation Aug. 25 to Sept. 20.
